Convicted Killers Caught Here, To Have New Trial

Shasta County Atmosphere Unsatisfactory Rules Highest Court

A new trial in a county other than Shasta, where they were found guilty of first degree murder, has been ordered by the state supreme court for James McKay, 19, and Robert Sturm, 20, who overpowered and killed two Redding officers who were returning them to California after they escaped a Youth Authority camp.

The two were arrested in Truckee by State Patrolman William Gautsche and the late Patrolman George Schrom. They were apprehended after they abandoned the deputies' car near Polaris and were hitchhiking a ride east.

In jail here they assertedly admitted the slayings and were later found guilty in Redding.

The supreme court ordered new trials for the pair awaiting death in San Quentin's death row on the specious argument that the jury which convicted them in Redding, Shasta County, was "subject to inantagonism of the community." The supreme court questioned whether they got a fair and impartial trial despite the abundance of evidence against them.

The two deputies, Earl Sholes and Dan Heryford, were beaten and shot to death a few miles from Redding and left in a ditch beside the highway shortly after they had stopped to feed their young prisoners. The hoodlums were being returned from Washington where they went after their escape from the Shasta camp. Both are said to have signed written confessions for local officers after they were apprehended here.

ABSENT DEFENDANT NOT YET LOCATED TO START JAIL STINT

Leroy F. Panzenhagen, 32, Sacramento, found guilty on a change of speeding in the justice court here last week and sentenced to serve 10 days in jail, cannot be located, according to Justice of the Peace Fosten Wilson.

Panzenhagen asked for a jury trial and although two were held for his benefit, the defendant failed to put in an appearance at either. During the second trial he was found guilty despite his absence, was ordered to forfeit $15 bail and serve the ten days.

Word from Sacramento, Wilson said, indicates the defendant left there without notifying associates and cannot be immediately found.

Ray Roberts Leave Here For West End of County

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Roberts are leaving this week to make their home in North San Juan, near Nevada City. They have rented their home on River Street to Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Landries and will rent their cottage on East Main Street.

Their many friends here will regret their departure as Mrs. Roberts has been active in local civic affairs and is secretary of the Truckee Outdoor Sportsmen.

Local Justice Court Gets $500 from Drunk Drivers

Clifford Purdy, 35, Susanville, was fined $300 on a drunk driving charge following his appearance before Justice of the Peace F. W. Wilson Saturday. He was cited by Patrolman William Gautsche.

George Knight Ellis, 54, Folsom, was fined $200 on a similar charge in the local court yesterday following his arrest by Patrolman T. F. Sheehan.

Exodus Expected As Duck Season Opening

The duck hunting season opens in Nevada tomorrow and Truckee and this surrounding area will be virtually deserted as hundreds of hunters flock to the Fallon area for the opening weekend.

The season in California opens a week later and another exodus of local nimrods will travel west for the opening in their favorite locations in the Sacramento valley.

Man Fined $50 as Drunk In Local Justice Court

Salvatore Garcia, arrested on a drunk charge last Thursday, was fined $50 when he appeared before Justice of the Peace F. W. Wilson. Garcia was an occupant of a car driven by Dolores Haight which was involved in a minor accident. Miss Haight was cited for not having an operator's license.

Hopkins Here—

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hopkins of Santa Maria visited Mr. and Mrs. Hal Gilson last weekend.

Former Resident Of Hobart Mills Is 101 Years Old

Mrs. Mary Jane Fosdick of Carmichael, who was 101 years old Monday, is well known in this district where for many years she resided at Hobart Mills and was known as "grandma" by her legion of friends. The family left Hobart Mills shortly before the mill closed in 1936.

Mrs. Fosdick's recipe for longevity is early to bed and early to rise, and eat whatever you want. She has cultivated the habit of retiring before 9 p.m. and is always up before 6 a.m. She lives with her foster daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Gaines.

During the last year, Grandma had a sick spell which robbed her of her appetite but a vacation trip to southern California brought her back to excellent health and her only infirmity is the fact she is hard of hearing but she explained: "I hear everything I want to hear."

A bit touchy about her age, Mrs. Fosdick some times avers she is only 50. "She has been saying she is only 50 for the last 50 years," her daughter explained.

During her residence at Hobart, the Fosdicks resided for some of the time with Mrs. Hannah Stewart, a long-time friend of the family, now of Truckee.

FRED M. PEDLEY NEW TRUSTEE OF SCHOOL DISTRICT

Fred M. Pedley of Soda Springs, in charge of the snow measurement laboratory there, has been appointed as a member of the governing board of the Tahoe-Truckee Unified School District.

He replaces William Rutherford of Soda Springs, whose resignation was recently accepted by the board.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Pedley have been active in community and civic affairs, particularly where they concern the younger people. Mrs. Pedley has been in charge of the the Girl Scouts and kindred organizations and the new board member is also active in this type of community work.

His appointment on the board will meet with approval from all sections of the district, it is believed.

Defendant Goes Free As Jurors Confused

A jury which heard evidence in a traffic case against Fred Lloyd Martn of Reno evidently became confused Saturday in the justice court of F. W. Wilson and as a result a not guilty verdict was read and later several members of the jury said they had never been consulted regarding a verdict. District Attorney Vernon Stoll handled the prosecution. Martin had been cited for making a bad pass, entered a plea of not guilty and asked for a jury trial.

Martin was freed of the charge before the jury members reported they had not voted.

Patrol Auxilary Unit Planned In Truckee District

Organizer Here Next Week To Lay Groundwork For Group

Organization of a local branch of the California Highway Patrol Auxiliary will be started here next week.

This was announced by Patrolman Lester E. Kelly of Roseville, in charge of the Placer Area auxiliary, who was here to survey the possibilities of the local branch last week. He will return next Wednesday and Thursday to interview prospective members and explain the program.

Kelly said there are now more than 60 members of the organization between Roseville and Colfax and that the local group would constitute an important unit in the setup, being located in a strategic position in the state.

The auxiliary will be called upon only in event of disaster and will then augment the work done by the regular patrol officers. It will be a unit of the Placer Area Civil Defense Council and the members will be given a 10-hour training period by instructors in first aid methods and general patroling activities. These instructions will be carried on in Truckee in the evenings so that no inconvenience will be suffered by the recruits.

Kelly explained that he is anxious to contact men who are not presently affiliated with the fire department or similar groups which would also be called upon in case of a major disaster. Part of the training will be working with regular officers, learning various traffic problems and kindred subjects.

Local meetings will be arranged, Kelly explained, and the groups will select its own officers or leaders who in turn will be responsible to the area group which works directly under Captain George Peterkin.

Those desiring to affiliate with the auxiliary may contact Patrolman Kelly at Roseville.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

Those flashing red lights on a school bus indicate that passengers are being taken on or off and vehicles which pass them either from the rear or front are not only in violation of the law but are endangering the lives of children. The Highway Patrol has issued a warning that a "crack down" on school bus law violators will be inaugurated immediately. Twice during the current school term youngsters have had narrow escapes which were reported to the patrol and drivers are urgently requested to watch buses closely. The patrol also urges that extreme care be used in driving through school zones. Children are sometime thoughtless and, being engaged in play, may not watch for cars so it's up to the drivers to watch for the children.

The deer hunting season ends Sunday after one of the most successful hunts on record. What makes the season more successful is the fact that not a single human casualty was reported and only one or two fires started by careless hunters. Taking into consideration the huge number of hunters frequenting the district makes this an enviable record and speaks well of the sportsmen. There have been too many violations, as the number of arrests indicate, but this figure too reflects the fact that hunters are beginning to realize that preservation is important if the sport is to continue to gain in popularity.

Four Are Hurt As Cars Crash On Local Roads

Tahoe and Truckee Drivers Involved in Series of Collisions

Four people were injured in five separate motor vehicle accidents in this area during the past week.

Juliet F. Flynt, 26, Greenwich, Conn., and Julia Woodley, 26, New York City, were hurt this mroning when the convertible driven by the former crashed into a pickup truck driven by John Pingree of Tahoe Pines at the Tahoe City wye. Miss Woodley had serious head injuries and the driver had lesser hurts. Both were taken to a Reno hospital by Truckee ambulance.

Patrolmen William Gautsche and Martin Sturcke, who investigated, said Miss Flynt admitted failure to stop at an arterial sign.

Jack Felte, 36, Kings Beach electrician, had minor injuries when his car and one driven by Walter J. Hollingsworth, 29, Reno fireman, collided Thursday afternoon on the Brockway cut-off. State Patrolman William Gautsche cited Hollingsworth for being on the wrong side of the road.

Lloyd Everett, Truckee, was cited by Gautsche for being on the wrong side of the highway after his car and one driven by George Lynn Robertson, Merced, collided headon Sunday evening two miles east of Soda Springs. Joseph Lynn Robertson, 2½, was treated by Dr. L. D. Nelson and ordered taken to a Reno hospital for observation. His condition was not serious. Everett was attempting to pass another vehicle and did not see the Merced car approaching.

Cpl. Roger Werts, Hamilton Field, was charged with hit and run by Patrolman Gautsche after his car and a trailer operated by George Barbera, Piedmont, were involved in an accident Friday on the Dog Valley road.

Cars driven by Clarence L. Adams, Vallejo, and James Terry O'Donnell, Burlingame, were damaged when the latter was struck from the rear near Soda Springs Saturday evening. Patrolman Roy Stallard cited Adams for driving without due caution.

State Is Asked To Lend Aid In Bridge Project

The board of supervisors Saturday asked the state division of highways for help in building a new bridge across the Truckee River to replace the one on Bridge Street destroyed by a collapse a few weeks ago. The state was asked to furnish an estimate of the cost of preparing plans.

The board is considering a two-lane concrete and steel span.

In the meantime, Supervisor H. G. Loehr said, work of improving the improvised road over the Crandall Brothers bridge, a quarter of a mile west of the old span, is being completed and offers a currently adequate crossing. However, snow removal over this road and high water in the river may create impossible conditions later in the year, Loehr said, in requesting speed for a permanent structure.

WOMAN PAYS $50 TO LEARN WHAT IS A LEGAL BUCK

Ilean Hopkins of Broderick brought her buck to the forest service station here for validation and wound up by paying a $50 fine to Justice of the Peace F. W. Wilson.

It appears that the hunter shot a spike buck and, not knowing it was illegal, hauled her kill in for legal processing.

"At least four similar cases have been noted this season and Wilson suggests that hunters familiarize themselves with the law before shooting.

School Officials Will Enforce Law Banning Smoking

Discussions Will Point Up Problem, Can't Effect Basic Laws

Regardless of the outcome of current discussions between parents, educators and students, the state law prohibiting smoking on public school property will be enforced at the Tahoe-Truckee High School.

This problem came up for lengthy discussion during a meeting of the high school PTA held Thursday night when it became evident that some students, with, and some possibly without, parental permission, desire to find a means of indulging the habit during class recesses.

Some parents and students present made it plain that in their opinion some means should be found to circumvent the law or have the code altered to provide smoking areas, so smokers will not be required to cross heavily traveled Highway 40 to smoke.

Others were equally convinced that the law was a good one and should be rigidly enforced and that no smoking should be permitted among the younger people either on or off the school grounds.

Open Discussions

E. V. O'Rourke, superintendent of the district, in commenting on the problem, said the question should be discussed openly and freely by all concerned. Only in this way, he said, can the various and complicated ramifications be brought into proper focus. He pointed out the fact that school officials have charge of the children only a few hours daily for 170 days of the year. It is necessary that homes and community exercise their share of the social direction of the individual, O'Rourke said.

As a result of the problem, meetings are being held in various sections of the district where interested parties are discussing the question in hopes of finding a solution. While there is no alternative for the immediate outcome, it is hoped to prove, O'Rourke said, through open discussion and a frank approach, that the local school authorities have no control over state laws and that any changes in the present setup must come from sources outside the district. Recommendations resulting from these meetings will be presented to the school board and faculty for the purpose of study.

Not Local Problem

While some parents do not object to their children using cigarettes either at home or away, the meeting brought out, others ob-

"NOT UNEXPECTED", SAYS WARREN ON TAFT CANDIDACY

by HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— Although the 1952 national elections are more than a year in the future, the public, whether it likes it or not, is scheduled to be fed various political dishes until the day of the big decision arrives next November.

This observation was heightened this week as the result of Governor Earl Warren's comment, or lack of comment, on the announcement of Senator Taft that the Ohio hopeful will be a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Although Warren and Taft represent two wholly different fields of political philosophy, with the California governor generally considered to be aligned with the liberal elements of the party, and Taft accredited as the representative of the conservative element, the governor apparently does not feel that as yet the time is ripe to put on the boxing gloves.

Regarding Taft's announcement he said it "wasn't unexpected", and pointed out that it was a personal matter with Taft if the Ohio senator felt this was the proper time to start his campaign.

But he also pointed out in regard to Taft's statement that "he could conduct the only kind of campaign that would elect a Republican to office" that "this isn't the first time he's thought that. I have heard it in at least three other pre-primary campaigns."

And as to the principles Taft espouses, the California governor has no comment on them until he sees them put down in black and white. He is against expressing his views in generalities, despite the fact he has opinions on all public figures, he said.

"I've tried too many law cases," Governor Warren said, "to discuss generalities. We must take the whole situation by four corners when the chips are down and at that time, the people can exercise their judgment."

While Warren is a potential candidate for the nation's top spot, it has been his policy to let the job come to the man rather than to seek the office. He has followed this policy not only in his own public life, on the surface at least, but also with regard to his appointments to public office in California. Those who hav esought favor from the Warren administration usually have received little consideration.

Campaigning for political office, however, is somewhat different than appointment from an executive who has achieved his office by vote of the people and eventually Warren must make some pronouncement as to his intentions, or "availability."

This he is not expected to do until some time in 1952, which he describes as a "campaign year." This plan was followed in his last campaign for governor, when he delayed until 1950 to make known his intentions for running for a third term.

The big question, of course, will be whether there will be both a Warren and a Taft GOP ticket in the California primaries next June. Normally there would be long odds against a set-up of this kind, which if it occurs, would signify a state of disunity in the Republican party. But in the event the Ohio senator should choose to challenge a native and favorite son in his home state, the odds would be havy on a Warren victory in California, at least.

SWEET STATE

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— California is a "sweet" state this year, with 26,787,000 pounds of honey forecast by the crop and livestock reporting service for 1951. This is 19 percent more than last year and puts California at the top of the honey-producing states.

SUMMIT SCENE

by FRAN COUILLARD

Seeing as how this edition will reach the mountain folk on Friday, it will be too late e remind them that the regional meeting of the state chamber of commerce starts at 9:30 a.m., Senator Hotel, Sacramento. E'en tho' they have all received invitations, some forget to remember this late fall meeting is usually devoted to snow sports areas, in at least 50 per cent of its scheduled time. Pat Woodard of the Ski Ranch announces that she plans on attending but at the moment we believe that we'll be unable to attend. Which reminds us:

SKI RANCH: Unable to find a home for Pat and his three little boys, Jack Woodard plants a new home on his Ski Ranch property for his family. The building is a replica of the main chalet-type of building on the property and under the capable hands of Rex Reid it grows with rapidity. Such a short time ago it was started and in just a short time the Woodard family will be secure within its walls. The two buildings remind one of a hen with one identical chick. Jack Woodard announces that his cook, John Richards, who holds a "ham" radio operators license, will broadcast via short wave all winter, giving snow depths, Ski Ranch and other hill activities, road conditions, etc. Not satisfied with this innovation, Jack says two new rope tows have been installed and that come spring he will install a television set, tests having been made that proves same will be receivable.

SODA SPRINGS HOTEL: The new Snow Sports house adjoining the Soda Springs Hotel takes rapid form and will soon hold the euipment that Bud and Barbara Zorich will sell and rent to snow sports enthusiasts this coming season. Just met a Rene Leclere from New York who is going to equip the Soda Springs premises with equipment that will enable all from tots to totterers to learn to ski without benefit of snow. The me chanical equipment, of which we have seen photographs, is the latest innovation in teaching skiing When one finishes with his mechanical course he is supposed to be ready for the terrain. Coupled with this, we make the announcement that the first fashion show to be held on the mountain will be initiated at the Hotel November 10. The Lizabeth Peterson's Charm School of Berkeley will export the charming models for the occasion; six pulchritudunous clothes horses and two children, all to model White Stag snow clothes under the fascinating title of Snow Fantasies. Two shows to accommodate the huge crowds that are expected will be given on a runway that is going to be constructed down the center of the spacious cocktail lounge Background music will lend an air of excitement as well as enchantment to the big show. First show at 5 p.m., cocktail hour, second show at 8 p.m. If you are dissatisfied with your present skiing outfit, if you have outgrown same or can see light thru' the seat of the trousers you have faithfully cherished, prepare to view, with de light, the very, very latest in ski togs! Will be seeing you there.

DONNER SUMMIT LODGE: Beacon Hill Lodge has become famous for its spectacular costume parties; Soda Springs Hotel lures youngsters each year with their Easter Egg Roll; Sugar Bowl has its very own Walt Disney race—but Halloween is synonomous with Donner Summit Lodge. And as this edifice gets on the ball for its 8th annual party, they promise one bigger and getter than ever. Bud Horak, himself a father, believes that parents should be at home on Halloween night so that they can participate in the "trick or treat" schedule so he sets his big orange and black wingding for the night of October 30. Witches, hobgoblins, apple dunking, apple chawing, pie eating—the works! Already the super-duper prizes are being fancily wrapped and staff contemplates appropriate decorations. Mountain folks know the rule! A baby sitter is provided for that night so that the kids can have their fun early and be bedded down. Then mom and pop cut lose to try their hand at winning a bottle of champagne or something!

As tho' the party wasn't enough former employee Evelyn Engle takes a romantic journey from Ukiah where she is now employed, to Donner Summit Lodge to make arrangements for her forthcoming wedding to be held at Donner on November 3; candlelight ceremony at 5 p.m., champagne and Bud to give her away. Haven't heard who has been chosen for attendants as yet for Evelyn has a lot of mountain friends who all wish her boundless good luck on her coming wedding.

The California Association of Secondary School Administrators (Region II) held a short convention at DSL last weekend, 52 of 'em, while coming up is the Truckee 20-30 buffet (Oct. 27) and the California State Employees Association banquet on Nov. 1. Looks like the staff won't be able to take that breather known as "between seasons."

THIS AND THAT: Those that aren't going are coming at the present. Eula Sherritt catches the modern and beatiful WP Vista Dome to journey eastward (New York no less) to visit with daughter Naydyne Stevens. Know that Eula will have a whale of a time since son-in-law, Gary Stevens, is a television producer, which means good seats at television shows and the works! . . . Bill Rutherford pulls in at Ice Lakes after a San Francisco sojourn and complained (of all things) of the heat in the City . . . Jeannie Moriano of Beacon Hill Lodge returns home too, from a not so interesting trip—home from the hospital. Jeannie is nicely casted in a complete torso job and champs at the bit as she lies in bed. Too many things going on at Beacon Hill for Jeannie to take it lying down . . . Former residents, good natured Joe and beautiful Gia Hilbrun, vacation at Trailsyde Lodge with Glen and Velda Parsons. These kids have a variety store some place down around Bethel Island way and we hear that their little knotty pined shop is a joy to behld . . . Back from a four-state trip are Bud and Betty Horak and Irene and Ernie Lepire. From here to Sun Valley, at first, but the rest of Idaho was not slighted by the foursome while Washington, Nevada and Oregon got a crack at the hurried travelers also . . . Evelyn Gray exits from San Francisco and enters at Soda Springs for a wekend's sojourn to take a gander at the new addition (guest rooms) on the Gray mountain hideaway . . . Vida Euer flits from Euer Valley to clamber up the mountain saide to say hello to we'uns . . . Doris Chaplin comes back home to Soda Springs Hotel after visiting son, Bob, at San Rafael Military Academy . . . Guy Foulks, back in the Cedars country, comes in for chat whilst he awaits the waters inrushing into the basin he has excavated for the lake we've been telling you about. Says Guy, "For years I have wanted to build that lake and now it looks exactly as I dreamed it would" . . . Betty and Edvi Aro looking hale, hearty and tan, return from a month's trip to Canada whence Mrs. Lempi Aro accompanied them.

We greet new subscribers of Kingvale and Sacramento, Frances Johnson and Lucille Murphy. These gals, who have christened their Kingvale Park palace the Flood Building, due to last year's waters running thru' their basement, elevated the building this past summer so that the water would have a more free course. Now new subscribers, we greet 'em, and hope that they look to the postman on Friday in Sacramento.

For a fitting polishing off of our column, we mention that we are going to a dinner party at the Travis Recreation Center down in the little Vale below Norden. Don't know what might be the occasion but the nice kids who maintain the place said "We're just going to have a nice little social get together" and so we'll tell you more about it next time.

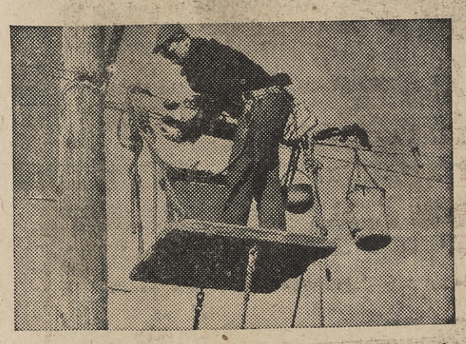
We're stretching our available supply of metals and other critical materials by every means science can devise.

MORE STRENGTH FOR OUR NATION

How we're saving the materials our country needs for defense



1. Copper for cables and wires...rubber for insulation...aluminum for dials—the telephone system requires vast amounts of the materials which are also badly needed by other defense products. Naturally, since the telephone is such an important military and production tool, we get a quota of these materials. But to keep building a strong communications system, we must conserve in every way we can.

2. Scientists are at work on this task...in telephone laboratories and manufacturing plants. By substituting other materials for critical ones, by discovering ways to use smaller amounts of the shortage items, they've come up with some amazing savings. It's estimated that, in 1951, the Bell System will save 2,700,000 pounds of rubber, 3,250,000 pounds of copper, 210,000 pounds of aluminum—to name just three.

3. Efficient telephone service, the kind that can pitch in and help all the nation in times of need, is the result of just such little things as using steel instead of aluminum in a telephone dial. It's the result, also, of keeping the telephone system financially strong. Over the years, such financial strength has been the foundation of our ability to serve. It has enabled us to produce telephone service that's better than ever, produce more of it than ever, and sell it at prices which have gone up far less than other things.

VERNON DISMISSES COMPLAINT OVER CUTTING OF TREES

TAHOE CITY— Justice of the Peace C. W. Vernon of Tahoe City last Friday heard the case of Ben Callender, agent for Dave Chambers' property near Quail Lake, versus two John Does and David McBride, who were accused of cutting Christmas trees on Chambers' grounds.

Judge Vernon dismissed the case due to the fact that property lines are in dispute between Chambers and Mr. Noonchester, for whom McBride was cutting. Vernon found that McBride had been instructed to cut on certain ground and had committed no criminal act, since property lines, which have been surveyed, have remained in dispute for some time.

BANK OF AMERICA HAS LARGE SUM IN SCHOOL BONDS

Bank of America has $170,000,000 invested in California school district bonds, according to a statement made by L. E. Townsend, a vice president of the institution. This total includes school building and improvement bond issues for some 450 school districts throughout the state.

In addition, Bank of America also lends money to architects, contractors and manufacturers who design, build and equip schools.

The place of the statewide banking system is becomingly increasingly important as districts all over California strive to bring their facilities in line with the multiplying enrollments.

Beside school district bonds, bank of America has large amounts invested in bonds for cities and counties for public buildings and services, streets, sewers, water works and other civic improvements.

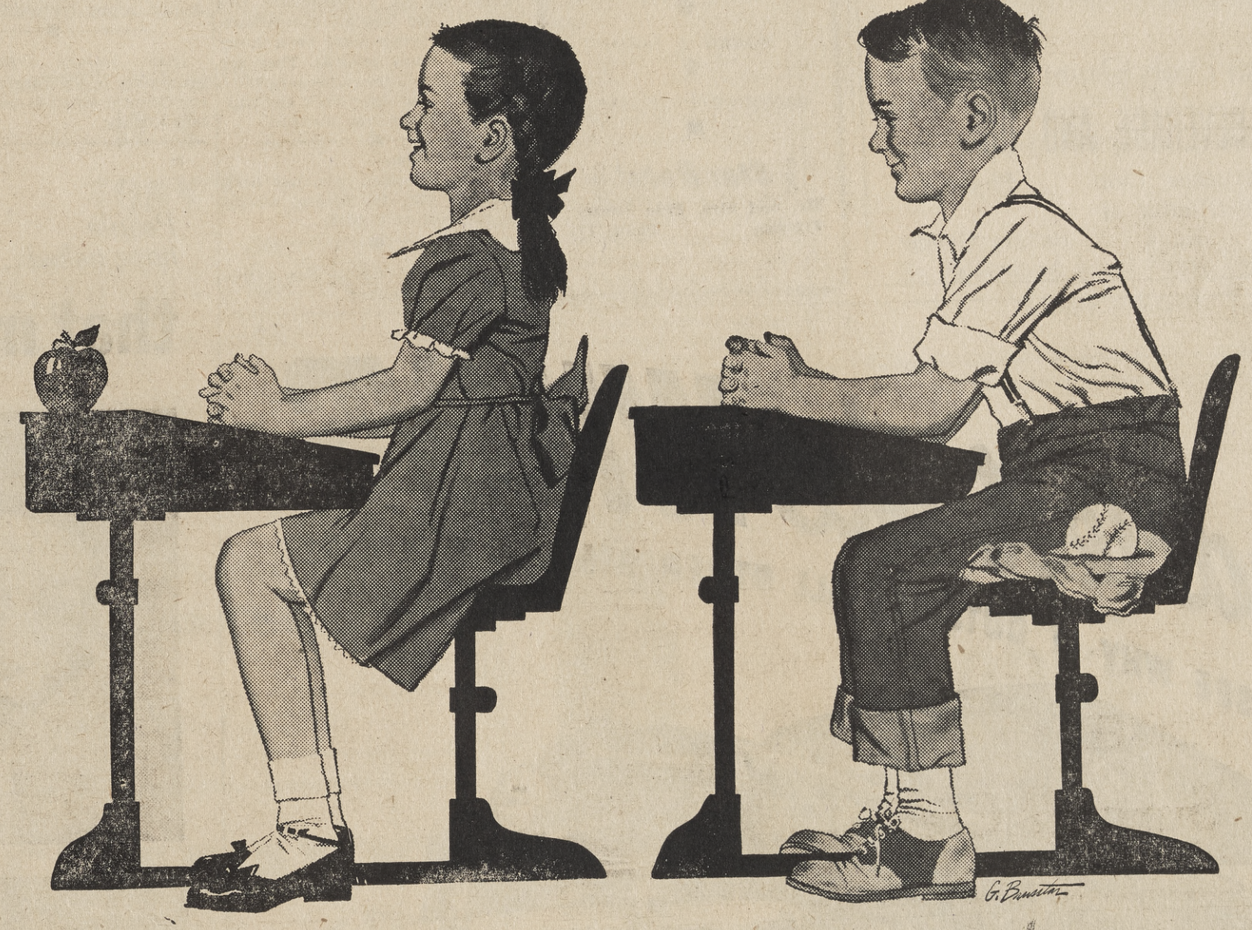
170 Million dollars
invested in their tomorrows!



Californians know that it takes money to educate today's youngsters for tomorrow's responsibilities—money for classrooms, libraries, playgrounds and other "tools of learning." A lot of this money comes from Bank of America through investment in school bonds. This financial support has helped create—in hundreds of California cities—the modern schools so vital to the development of today's children.

Everywhere in California the great resources of this bank are working for the development of communities like your own. Schools and other public buildings . . . streets . . . sewers . . . waterworks . . . municipal swimming pools and other civic improvements are being financed with many millions of Bank of America deposit dollars.

Here is statewide branch banking in action—working for you and your community, building ALL of California. Here is a banking service made possible only by progressive policies . . . vast resources . . . and statewide branch facilities.

Bank of America's bond portfolio includes about 450 school bond issues in addition to bonds for every other kind of municipal improvement.

Bank of America also lends to architects, contractors and manufacturers engaged in the important work of designing, building and equipping new schools and other public works.

SWANEE'S TAHOE LETTER

PHONE TAHOE CITY 39W

Tahoe City, October 15

Dear Tahoeites:

So far, this has been one of those quiet weeks where there seems to be little news. Tahoe scenery continues to become more glorious with each passing day and nights rmain crimpy, aided, no doubt, by the snow on the mountain peaks.

Have another card from the Carlton Valentines who had just revisited Quebec City for a few days. They drove along the Plains of Abraham where the English bested the French years and years ago. History tells how one of Mrs. Valentine's forebearers snuck up the ramparts one dark night, got the pass word and then proceeded to lead the English General Wolfe and company up and over to victory. It was indeed thrilling for them to scan the quiet plains which now glow peacefully in the autumn sun but which once held the cruelty and excitement of war. They were still sightseeing.

From back in Greenfield, Mass., comes word from Mrs. Lyman William Griswold Jr. (nee Pat Henry) that she is already preparing for her anticipated trip west for a visit with her parents, the A. M. Henrys of Tahoe City later this fall. She enclosed pictures in her last letter of their little year old daughter, Mary Tabor, who is certainly a chubby picture of health and beauty. All of the Henrys' neighbors, friends and family members were thrilled no end to learn of the good news which Joe brought back from his doctor following his medical examinations last week in the hosptial. He condition far excelled even the most optimistic hopes of his physician who says he can begin leaving off the clumsy brace he has been wearing these many months a little while each day from now on.

Hear that Slim Gordon is back again in the Tahoe Park area and has been here 'most all summer. He is doing a bit of caretaking this winter and will remain in. Wonder if he ever finished that book he was writing.

A reminder is given folks who attend the services in the Tahoe Community Hall each first and third Sunday every month, conducted by Rev. Max Christenson of Nevada City. Next meeting will be on Sunday, October 21, after which parents are urged to meet with the pastor and discuss plans for establishing a Sunday School class for the children of the district. Mrs. Evie Waters and her assistants are planning singing for the youngsters each Sunday also. Everyone is welcome to attend. Services are non-sectarian and are held at 4:30 p.m.

It won't be long until Halloween comes around again and this year once more the Tahoe Lake PTA will sponsor a party for the youngsters at the school house. This custom has proven over the years the best method of keeping children entertained and there is far less liklihood of finding a lot of mischievous damage around the town on the morning of November 1. Since kids will be kids, it's better to furnish them with whole some fun and keep them off the streets.

Charles Swanson, one of Tahoe's pioneers, observed another birthdate on October 10. He and H. E. "Pappy" Brooks of Kings Beach will start night patrol duty around the Placer end of the lake very soon.

Mrs. Patti Scott, who has been enjoying an extended vacation with her mother, Mrs. Molly Ross in Los Angeles, will return to her Tahoe City home on Thursday. Bud Scott and his wife enjoyed last weekend together in the bay region, he returning home Tuesday, she continuing on south to visit.

Wind this up for the week with the hope that the bright, brisk days we have been enjoying continue for some time to come. Tahoe's colorful scenery will soon be at its zenith. If the old time Indian prediction of a heavy winter, based on the number of wasps and yellow jackets and hornets which visit this district in the autumn has any truth then Tahoe is certainly due for a humdinger this year . . . for they are everywhere, and more people have been stung than for many seasons. They are one of Tahoe's few nuisances.

Adios for another week and happy days all. As ever, Swanee.

Back to Covina—

Ernest Hoerdler, who has been at Tahoe City for several weeks, has returned to Covina.

TAHOE LAKE SCHOOL

Kindergarten and First Grade:

Last Thursda we had a visitor. Jayne Shontz came to see what school is like . . . The first grade is making a playhouse and furniture. The committee working on the stove is composed of Danny Conners, Jimmy Schrader, Victor Sartor and Kirby Scarborough.

Second and Third Grades:

Class room quotes: "I eat lunch at school. I like the things they serve. They serve food in funny trays", Randal Scarborough . . . "I went to Carson City this week. I saw the old train. I had fun," Jo-Ann Pomin . . . "I had a birthday October 11," Betty Proctor . . . "I went to Sacramento," Roy Edmark . . . "When I was playing in the truck, I fell out," Lila Arterberry . . . "This summer I drove a tractor," Steven Randall . . . "We have a tree in the Valley that turned into a rock," Chris Poulsen . . . "I am going to Arizona for Christmas," Jeanne Spitsen.

4th, 5th and 6th Grades:

Our grades have organized a safety patrol which helps supervise the playground during recesses. One of us is responsible for each type of equipment on the playground and we help the other children learn how to use it properly. Billy Schrader is hte captain of one squad and Sharon Gilman, John Smith and Sharon Bechdolt help him. Richard Griffith is the captain of the other squad, with Mary Ann Stark, Bobby Doane and Donna Porter to help him. We all feel the safety patrol has helped us to play together safely.

People have asked... "Oil Progress? Should that mean something to me?"

The oil companies of America are now observing Oil Progress Week. Some people outside the industry have asked, "Oil Progress? Should that mean something to me?"

The answer is "Yes, indeed!"—for oil progress directly affects the lives of all Americans, and the rest of the civilized world as well. One indication of the strides the industry has made is a count of its products. Fifty years ago, we were getting only about a dozen different products out of crude oil. Now Standard produces more than 1100. What we ourselves produce, plus what's made with the help of products we provide, adds up to a seemingly endless list of things that make your life better.

Your car can be "like new" longer with a motor oil developed by Standard's scientists using atomic energy. It cuts engine wear as much as one-half, compared with conventional oils.
Your country's military strength is increased by jet fighters. Standard developed the first jet fuels used by the U. S. Our fuel progress continues with today's super-jets.
Your cleaning chores are easier thanks to today's new detergents. Standard pioneered their development, now supplies a large portion of the nation's needs.

The growth of the industry over the years has meant the development of thousands of oil companies, large and small. All are needed—to serve you better, and keep the nation strong. As the industry progresses, the gain is yours... for your progress and oil progress go hand in hand.

NORTH TAHOE

by THELMA BURROUGHS

Members of the California state organization of public health nurses, northern units, enjoyed the Columbus Day holiday at beautiful Lake Tahoe, Crystal Bay, Nevada. Mrs. Fannie Warncke, president of the organization and nursing director, Oakland department of health, stated that public health nursing leaders from the San Francisco department of health, Berkeley, Alameda, Oakland, Sacramento and Veterans Administration public health nurses were entertained at the spacious Roll Inn Lodge by the charming host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Levitt. Guests enjoyed swimming in the Sandy Cove at Roll-Inn, hiking and hunting along the colorful trails of the Lake Tahoe area. Warm sunny skies during the days and full moon at night made the vacation a delightful one at Tahoe. Dinner and special entertainment were enjoyed at the Sierra Lodge by the guests. They were so pleased with the Indian Summer climate at Lake Tahoe that plans are being made to make the "get together" at Levitt's Roll-Inn an annual affair.

First aid classes which were to have been held at the home of Mrs. Harry Levitt at Crystal Bay have been cancelled. Mrs. Levitt will return to her work at a military base in the bay area.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ejbil and Mrs. Johansen Ejbil of Cincinnati, Ohio, were guests of the Henry Chandas for a week prior to their departure on October 10, accompanied by the Chandas, for Gardena, Calif., where the group will help to celebrate the 60th wedding anniversary of the parents of Mrs. Chanda and Mrs. Ernest Ejbil. The Chandas will remain down there until about the first of November.

Bible Study was held Tuesday October 16, at the home of Mrs Fred Vercoe in Tahoe Vista.

The ladies of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold a food sale on Saturday, October 20, at the Variety Store in Kings Beach, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning. Anyone wishing to donate food will receive a hearty welcome to do so.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Miller are away for a short vacation in Los Angeles.

Community Church services will be held at 9:30 Sunday morning at Carpenters' Hall in Kings Beach instead of the former regular hour of 11. Sunday school will open at 10:30, following church services.

Dr. Harold P. Barnes, executive director of the Fred Finch Childrens' Home of Oakland, gave an interesting talk at last Sunday's church service in Kings Beach with regard to the home where both boys and girls of broken homes are cared for.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lawson were at the bedside of the former's mother, aged 81, when she passed away on October 11 in Los Angeles. Funeral services were held last Saturday. Friends of the Lawsons extend since condolences.

Norman King has been visiting friends in and around Kings Beach for the last week or so.

Rationing Seen Alternative For Shortage of Coins

SAN FRANCISCO— There's an acute shortage of pennies in northern and central California and the 12th Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco has appealed to the public to bring the coins out of hiding.

The bank hinted that if people don't stop hoarding the coins in cookie jars and piggy banks, it may be necessary to resort to rationing.

The penny shortage, the bank's statement declared, is due largely to the odd-cent pricing, sales taxes, parking meters and vending machines, as well as the well known habit of people to tuck odd pennies into home containers. Mrs. Nellie Tayloe Ross, director of the mint, issued an appeal for each American family to return to circulation just ten pennies, pointing out that nearly 388 million of them would come out of hiding.

Mints of the country have been working on a 60-hour week basis trying to supply the demand for pennies and half dollars and the recent restriction by the NPA of copper allocations has aggravated the problem of minting the coins, the bank pointed out.

Way Out West in the Land Of Cotton; California 2nd

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— California has an even chance of becoming the No. 2 cotton state in the nation this year, according to a report made to the state board of agriculture by W. L. Smith of Buttonwillow.

California and Mississippi have prospective yields of 1,800,000 bales each and the number of bales harvested will determine the second state in production. Texas, with a large potential acreage of cotton, will hold the top spots.

Last year, Smith said, California ranked fourth in production but this year a larger acreage has been planted in this state.

Cal-Nevada Reciprocity Topic of Talk at Meet

KINGS BEACH— Legal machinery has been started to bring about a more reciprocal enforcement of mutual laws between the California and Nevada counties which border the state line.

This was explained Tuesday night at Cal-Vada Lodge where a joint meeting of Lions from Tahoe and Carson City assembled 56 strong to hear an interesting address by J. E. Springmeyer of the Nevada Tax Commission. Springmeyer cited a number of cases in which reciprocity is advantageous to both states, stressing fire protection districts, fishing and hunting regulations and kindred subjects which should, he said, be governed uniformly by both states.

Miss JoEllen Ashton was heard in vocal selections, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Mizner. Harry Charrison, president of the Lake Tahoe Lions presided.

ject and feel that any letting down of the restrictions would create a bad influence.

O'Rourke pointed out that the situation is not entirely local, that a similar problem exists in virtually every secondary school in the country. He added that purchase of cigarettes is made easy but that school authorities are expected to correct the problem during the brief period the minors are under their jurisdiction.

The Law Cited

Following is a verbatim copy of Section 24, Article 3, Sub-Chapter 1 of Chapter 1, Government of the Public Schools, California Administrative Code Title 5, Education, consisting of Rules and Regulations of the California State Department of Education, 1951:

"MORAL SUPERVISION: Principals and teachers shall exercise careful supervision over the moral conditions in their respective schools. Gambling, immorality, profanity, frequenting public pool rooms, the use of tobacco, narcotics and intoxicating liquors on the school grounds, or elsewhere on the part of pupils shall not be tolerated."

Following is verbatim copy of Section 16073, Article 4, Chapter 1, Division 8, Education Code, State of California, 1949:

Smoking or having tobacco on school premises constitutes good cause for the suspension or expulsion of a pupil except when permitted as provided in this section. The governing board of any school district maintaining a junior college may adopt rules and regulations permitting the smoking and possession of tobacco on the campus of a junior college by pupils of the junior college 18 years of age and over and enrolled in grades above the twelfth, if the campus is not shared with a high school."
